

Robert M. Blue
Senior Vice President—Law, Public Policy & Environment

Robert M. “Bob” Blue is senior vice president—Law, Public Policy & Environment.

He serves as chief legal advisor and directs the legal affairs of the Company. He is also responsible for Dominion’s federal, state and local public policy; environmental programs; economic development; philanthropy and community affairs; and corporate communications.

Blue joined Dominion in 2005 as managing director—State Affairs & Corporate Public Policy, and was later promoted to vice president—State & Federal Affairs. He was named senior vice president—Public Policy & Corporate Communications in May 2008 and became Senior Vice President—Public Policy & Environment in February 2010. Blue assumed his current position in January 2011.

From 2002 to 2005, Blue served as counselor and director of policy for former Virginia Gov. Mark R. Warner and was a partner with the law firm of Hogan & Hartson prior to that.

He is a member of the boards of directors of the Virginia Foundation for the Humanities, Virginia Healthcare Foundation, the American Civil War Center, the Virginia Commonwealth University Health System Authority, Virginiaforever, and Virginia21.

Blue is a graduate of the University of Virginia and Yale Law School. He also earned his master’s degree in business administration from the University of Virginia’s Darden School of Business.