

David A. Christian
Executive Vice President, Dominion Resources, Inc.
Chief Executive Officer—Dominion Generation

David A. Christian is executive vice president of Dominion Resources, Inc. and chief executive officer of the company's Dominion Generation operating segment.

He oversees the more than 28,000 megawatt generation operations of Dominion's merchant fleet and regulated electric utility.

Christian joined Virginia Power in 1976 and has held a variety of management positions with Dominion. Before assuming his current position in June 2009, Christian was president and chief nuclear officer of the company's Dominion Nuclear business unit from October 2007 to May 2009.

Christian is chairman of the board of directors of Nuclear Electric Insurance, Ltd. (NEIL), and also serves on the NEIL executive and governance committees. He is a member of the board of directors of the Nuclear Energy Institute, where he serves on the executive and audit committees. Christian is a board member of the Foundation for Nuclear Studies, CultureWorks (formerly the Richmond Arts Council), and the Dominion Foundation. He also is a member of the Committee of 100 at Virginia Tech and serves on the advisory boards for the College of Engineering at both Virginia Tech and Virginia Commonwealth University.

Christian has a degree in mechanical engineering from Virginia Tech and a master's degree in business administration from Averett College. He graduated in 1990 from the Institute of Nuclear Power Operations senior plant management course and completed the Executive Program of the Darden Graduate School of Business Administration at the University of Virginia.