

Diane Leopold
Senior Vice President–Dominion Transmission

Diane Leopold is senior vice president–Dominion Transmission.

Leopold joined Dominion in April 1995 and held numerous positions with responsibilities related to project and commercial management, market analysis and asset valuation, and strategy development before becoming vice president–Business Planning & Market Analysis in 2004. She was named vice president–Financial Management, Dominion Energy in January 2006 and vice president–Fossil & Hydro Merchant Operations in October 2007. She was named senior vice president–Business Development & Generation Construction in April 2009, and assumed her current post April 1, 2012.

Prior to joining Dominion, she held various engineering positions at Potomac Electric Power Co.’s power stations.

Leopold is a member of the board of trustees of the Virginia Commonwealth University Foundation.

Leopold graduated from the University of Sussex in the United Kingdom in 1989 with a bachelor’s degree in mechanical and electrical engineering. She received a master’s degree in electrical engineering (energy conversion, power and transmission) in 1993 from George Washington University and an MBA in 1998 from Virginia Commonwealth University.