

Steven A. Rogers
President and Chief Administrative Officer
Dominion Resources Services

Steven A. Rogers is president and chief administrative officer of Dominion Resources Services, Inc.

He oversees the corporate services provided to Dominion's operating companies, including information technology, human resources, supply chain management and budgeting.

Rogers joined Dominion in 1996 as manager-Internal Audit and has held controller positions with several Dominion companies. He was named vice president and controller of Dominion Resources, Inc. in June 2000 and promoted to senior vice president and controller in April 2006. He became senior vice president and chief accounting officer in January 2007, and was named to his current position in October 2007.

He serves as vice chairman of the board of directors of CenterStage Foundation (formerly the Virginia Performing Arts Foundation). Rogers is also on the board of Needle's Eye Ministries in Richmond, the Central Virginia Advisory Board of SunTrust Bank and the Library of Virginia Foundation Board.

Rogers received a bachelor's degree in economics/accounting from the College of the Holy Cross, Worcester, Massachusetts.